History of the Wisconsin Society.

On December 27, 1889, Governor Hoard, at the request of the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, appointed a committee of Wisconsin gentlemen to organize a branch of that Society in this state. Among the persons appointed five only, Allen P. Lovejoy, Chandler P. Chapman, James D. Butler, Charles King and William W. Wight, became members of the Society, and of these the two last named alone were present at the organizing meeting. This was held at the Plankinton House, Milwaukee, January 14, 1890. On February 25, 1890, a permanent organization was effected, a constitution adopted and officers elected to serve until the annual meeting. This meeting was decided to be held on May 29, the date of the admission of the State of Wisconsin into the American Union, and this is the date of the annual meeting in each year. The original permanent members of the Society who filed their applications at this meeting, and who, unless deceased or dismissed to branch Societies, are still members, were and are Don J. Whittemore, Charles King, Uranus O. B. Wingate, Joseph H. Burnell, Paul D. Carpenter, John B. Vliet, Frank W. Montgomery, William W. Wight, William C. Swain, William H. Munn, Bradley G. Schley and Frank T. Terry, of Milwaukee, George W. Root, of Sparta, Henry C. Van Vechten and Edward Burbeck, of Racine, Byron H. Kilbourne, of North Lake, James D. Butler, of Madison, Alexander L. Collins, of Neenah, and the Right Rev. Gershom M. Williams, of Marquette, Michigan.

Prior to the annual meeting of 1891, the Wisconsin Society printed its Constitution and By-Laws and a roster of its officers and members. No book of the Society has since been printed until this present Year-Book. On June 25, 1891, the headquarters of the Society were permanently fixed at Milwaukee.

The meetings which, however, were but few in number and scantily attended, were held at the Plankinton House until the annual meeting in 1894. Upon that occasion, and continuously since, the Society has met at the Hotel Pfister. On May 29, 1894, the Daughters of the American Revolution were the guests of this Society. Papers were read by the Historian upon the subject The Admission of Wisconsin into the Union, and by the Registrar upon the subject Ruth Slocum, a Woman of the Revolution. A joint meeting with the Daughters was held on Washington's birthday, 1895, at which Miss Josephine Hustis and the Registrar of this Society read papers.

At the annual meeting in 1895 special efforts were made to encourage the celebration of Flag Day, June 14, with satisfactory results. At the same meeting it was decided to accept the suggestion of the Daughters looking to a joint annual celebration of the surrender of Lord Cornwallis on October 19. The first celebration on October 19, 1895, at the Athenæum, was a success both in a social and literary way. Colonel Turner, of the Illinois Society, read a paper pertinent to the occasion, and Judge Collins, of Neenah, whose father was a Revolutionary soldier, gave interesting reminiscences. During 1896 a prize essay contest was conducted, confined to the members of the class of 1896, in the Wisconsin High Schools, upon the subject: The Causes and Events which Led to the War of the American Revolution. The prize, $25 in gold, was awarded Miss Eva Robinson, of Waukesha.

At the annual meeting in 1896, a banquet was held at the Hotel Pfister, at which Henry S. Boutell, of the Illinois Society, and members of the Wisconsin Society, delivered addresses, and the Historian read brief biographies of the deceased members of this Society.

The statistics of the Wisconsin Society are as follows:

Constitution and By-Laws.

CONSTITUTION.

Article I.

The name of the Society shall be The Wisconsin Society of the Sons of the American Revolution.

Article II.

The purposes of the Society are, to keep alive among ourselves and our descendants the patriotic spirit of the men who, in military, naval or civil service, by their acts or counsel, achieved American Independence; to collect and secure for preservation the manuscript rolls, records and other documents relating to the War of the Revolution; and to promote social intercourse and good feeling among its members now and hereafter.

Article III.

Any person shall be eligible to membership in the Society who is above the age of twenty-one (21) years, who is a resident of Wisconsin, and who is descended from an ancestor who, either as a military or naval officer, soldier, sailor, or as an official or recognized subordinate in the service of any of the thirteen original Colonies or States, or of the National Government representing or composed of those Colonies or States, assisted in establishing American Independence during the War of the Revolution.

Article IV.

The officers of the Society shall be a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Secretary, a Treasurer, a Registrar, a Historian and a Board of Managers, consisting of those officers ex officiis, and six other members. The Delegates to the Council, as provided by the National Constitution, shall be elected at the same time and in the same manner as the officers.

ARTICLE V.

This Constitution shall be altered, amended or repealed only by a vote of three-fourths of the members of the Society present at a regular meeting, or at a special meeting called for the purpose of such alteration, amendment or repeal, five days notice in writing having been given of such meeting.

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1. The Society shall hold its annual meeting on the 29th day of May, the anniversary of the admission of the State of Wisconsin into the Union, at which time the election of officers shall take place. If said date fall upon Sunday, then the meeting will be held on the following day. The Board of Managers shall fix the place and the hour at which such meeting shall take place.

SEC. 2. Special meetings of the Society may be held at the call of the President, or may be called by the Secretary at the written request of five members of the Society. The Secretary shall notify each member of the Society of such meeting, and shall specify in the notice the object of such meeting, and no other business may be transacted except that for which the meeting may be called.

SEC. 3. At all meetings of the Society, ten members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE II.

The President shall preside at all meetings of the Society and Board of Directors. He shall be ex officio Chairman of the Board of Managers and a member of all committees. He shall preserve order and decide all questions of order, subject to an appeal to the Society. He shall perform all such other duties as are performed by the same officer in other similar organizations.

ARTICLE III.

The First Vice-President shall perform the duties of the President in the absence, or in the event of the disability, of that officer. In the absence of the President and the First Vice-President these duties shall be performed by the Second Vice-President. In the absence of all of these officers, a chairman pro tempore may be chosen to preside by the members present at the meeting.

ARTICLE IV.

The Secretary shall conduct the general correspondence of the Society. He shall notify all members of their election, and of such other matters as may be directed by the Board of Managers. He shall have charge of the seal, certificate of incorporation, By-Laws and records of the Society. He shall notify all members of the Society and Board of Managers of all meetings and shall attend the same. He shall keep a fair and accurate record of all proceedings at the meetings of the Society and the Board of Managers, and shall give notice to the several officers of all votes, orders, resolves and proceedings affecting them or appertaining to their respective duties.

ARTICLE V.

The Treasurer shall collect and keep the funds and securities of the Society, which shall be deposited in some bank or savings institution in this State to the credit of THE WISCONSIN SOCIETY OF THE SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, and shall be drawn thence on the check of the Treasurer for the purposes of the Society only. Out of these funds he shall pay such sums only as he may be ordered by the Society or the Board of Managers. He shall keep a true and accurate account of his receipts and expenditures, and at the annual meeting he shall render to the Society a report of the same, when a committee shall be appointed to audit his accounts. He shall furnish a statement of the financial condition of the Society to the Board of Managers at any time when so directed by the board.

ARTICLE VI.

The Registrar shall keep a roll of the members, and in his hands shall be lodged all proofs of membership qualification, and all historical and genealogical papers, manuscript or other, of which the Society may become possessed, and he shall, under the direction of the Board of Managers, for adequate compensation, make copies of such similar documents as the owners thereof may be unwilling to leave permanently in the keeping of the Society. Such Registrar, if practicable, shall be a member of the Wisconsin State Historical Society.

ARTICLE VII.

The Historian shall record from time to time a history of the transactions of the Society. He shall collect the data of, and record the acts of interest performed by, the ancestors of the members of the Society, and preserve the same until such time as the Society may determine upon their publication.

ARTICLE VIII.

The Board of Managers shall consist of thirteen members—namely, the President, the two Vice-Presidents, the Secretary, the Treasurer, the Registrar, the Historian, ex officiis, and the remaining six elected by ballot at the annual meeting as hereinbefore provided for the election of the officers of the Society.

They shall judge of the qualifications of the candidates for admission to the Society, and elect the same. They shall recommend plans for promoting the objects of the Society, shall digest and prepare business, and shall authorize the disbursement and expenditure of unappropriated money in the treasury for the payment of current expenses of the Society. They shall generally superintend the interests of the Society, and execute all such duties as may be committed to them by the Society.

Article IX.

At the annual meeting there shall be elected in addition to the general officers as hereinbefore provided the following: A Chaplain, whose duty it shall be to open with prayer all meetings of the Society when he is present; an Entertainment Committee of three members, who shall make the necessary arrangements for the social parts of all meetings, and shall have charge of the annual or other banquets of the Society; a Delegate-at-Large, together with one Delegate for every one hundred members and one for each fifty or fraction of fifty or over, who shall represent this Society at the General Council of the National Society. One Alternate Delegate for each regular Delegate shall also be chosen at the same time.

Article X.

The Board of Managers shall hold regular meetings on the second Wednesday in each month, except during July, August and September, and may hold special meetings at any time upon the call of the President. Six members of the Board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Article XI.

At all meetings of the Board of Managers the following shall be the

ORDER OF BUSINESS:

1. Roll call of members.
2. Reading of the minutes of the previous meeting.
3. Reports of committees.
4. Report of Registrar and balloting on applications of candidates.
5. Unfinished business.
6. New business.
7. Adjournment.

Article XII.

Members shall be elected in the following manner: Candidates shall fill out in duplicate the application blank, which are furnished by the Society, certifying to the truth of the statements therein contained, before a civil officer empowered to take acknowledgments, and forward the same, with the initiation fee and dues, to the Secretary of the Society. The Secretary shall deliver them to the Registrar, who will report to the Board of Managers as to the eligibility of the applicant, and if the report is favorable the Board will ballot upon the application. If the ballot is favorable to the application, the Secretary will then forward the papers to the Registrar General of the Society, and upon a favorable report received from that officer the Secretary shall then notify the applicant of his election. Should the candidate's application be rejected, the Secretary shall notify him to that effect and return his fee and dues which he may have paid. No application shall be considered a second time until after the lapse of six months from the date of its rejection.

ARTICLE XIII.

The initiation fee shall be one dollar ($1.00) and the annual dues two dollars ($2.00), payable in advance, and the payment of fifty dollars ($50.00) at any one time shall entitle the member to a life membership, and a life member shall be exempted from the payment of annual dues. Failure to pay the initiation fee or dues for the period of sixty days after notice is sent, shall work a forfeiture of membership when so declared by the Board of Managers.

ARTICLE XIV.

A member may be suspended or expelled from the Society, as per Article XIII, or for such cause as the Board of Managers may elect. Provided, however, that no member shall be expelled or suspended until he has been given an opportunity to present his defense.

ARTICLE XV.

The seal of this Society shall be of the same design as that of the General Society, with the addition of the words "Wisconsin Society, Organized February 25, 1890."

Article XVI.

The insignia of the Society shall be that adopted by the General Society, and may be obtained from the Secretary. This insignia is to be worn at all meetings of the Society upon the left breast of the wearer; it may be also worn by officers or privates of the Regular Army or of the National Guard upon all occasions of ceremony. The officers of the Society may wear their insignia suspended by the proper ribbon around the neck.

The button or rosette which may be worn in the lapel of the coat is of blue and white silk, and may be obtained from the Secretary upon payment of twenty-five cents each.

The price of the certificate of membership is one dollar, and may be obtained upon payment of this amount to the Secretary.

Article XVII.

At all meetings of the Society the following shall be the

ORDER OF BUSINESS :

1. Call to order by the President.
2. Prayer by the Chaplain.
3. Roll call of members.
4. Reading the minutes.
5. Report of the Secretary.
6. Report of the Board of Managers.
7. Report of the Treasurer.
8. Report of the Registrar.
9. Report of the Historian.
10. Election of officers.
11. Report of special committees.
12. Unfinished business.
13. New business.
14. Adjournment.

Article XVIII.

These By-Laws may be altered or amended by a majority vote of the Board of Managers at any meeting of the Board after notice of the proposed change is given in writing at a previous meeting of the Board of Managers.

Constitution and By-Laws

OF THE

NATIONAL SOCIETY OF THE SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.—NAME.

The name of this Society shall be "THE SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION."

ARTICLE II.—OBJECTS.

The objects of this Society shall be to perpetuate the memory of the men who, by their services or sacrifices during the war of the American Revolution, achieved the independence of the American people; to unite and promote fellowship among their descendants; to inspire them and the community at large with a more profound reverence for the principles of the government founded by our forefathers; to encourage historical research in relation to the American Revolution; to acquire and preserve the records of the individual services of the patriots of the war, as well as documents, relics and landmarks; to mark the scenes of the Revolution by appropriate memorials; to celebrate the anniversaries of the prominent events of the war; to foster true patriotism; to maintain and extend the institutions of American freedom; and to carry out the purposes expressed in the Preamble to the Constitution of our Country and the injunctions of Washington in his farewell address to the American people.

ARTICLE III.—MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION 1. Any man shall be eligible to membership in this Society who, being of the age of twenty-one years or over, and a citizen of good repute in the community, is the lineal descendant of an ancestor who was at all times unfailing in his loyalty to and rendered actual service in the cause of American Independence, either as an officer, soldier, seaman, marine, militiaman or minute man, in the armed forces of the Continental Congress or of any one of the several Colonies or States; or as a signer of the Declaration of Independence; or as a member of a Committee of Safety or Correspondence; or as a member of any Continental, Provincial or Colonial Congress or Legislature; or as a civil officer, either of one of the Colonies or States or of the National Government; or as a recognized patriot who performed actual service by overt acts of resistance to the authority of Great Britain.

SEC. 2. Applications for membership shall be made to any State Society, in duplicate, upon blank forms prescribed by the General Board of Managers, and shall in each case set forth the name, occupation and residence of the applicant, line of descent, and the name, residence and services of his ancestor or ancestors in the Revolution, from whom he derives eligibility. The applicant shall make oath that the statements of his application are true, to the best of his knowledge and belief. Upon the approval of an application by the State Society, to which it is made, one copy shall be transmitted to the Registrar General of the National Society, who shall examine further the eligibility of the applicant. If satisfied that the member is not eligible, he shall return the application for correction. And in case of such return the State Society shall, on failure to satisfy the Registrar General of the eligibility of such applicant, drop his name from membership.

SEC. 3. The official designation of the members of the Society of the Sons of the American Revolution shall be "Compatriots."

ARTICLE IV.—NATIONAL AND STATE SOCIETIES.

SECTION 1. The National Society shall embrace all the members of the State Societies of the Sons of the American Revolution, now existing, or which may hereafter be established under this Constitution.

SEC. 2. Whenever in any State or Territory, in which a State Society does not exist, or in which a State Society has become inactive or failed for two years to pay its annual dues to the National Society, fifteen or more persons duly qualified for membership in this Society may associate themselves as a State Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, and organize in accordance with this Constitution, they may be admitted by the General Board of Managers to the National Society as "The ——— Society of the Sons of the American Revolution," and shall thereafter have exclusive local jurisdiction in the State or Territory or in the District in which they are organized, subject to the provisions of this Constitution; but this provision shall not be construed so as to exclude the admission of members living in other states.

SEC. 3. Each State Society shall judge of the qualifications of its members and of those proposed for membership, subject to the provisions of this Constitution, and shall regulate all matters pertaining to its own affairs. It shall have authority to establish local chapters within its own jurisdiction and to endow the chapters with such power as it may deem proper, not inconsistent with this Constitution. It shall have authority, after due notice and impartial trial, to expel any member who, by conduct unbecoming a gentleman, shall render himself unworthy to remain a member of the Society.

SEC. 4. Each State Society shall submit to the Annual Congress of the National Society a report, setting forth by name the additions, transfers and deaths, and any other changes in the membership and progress of the State Society during the preceding year, and make such suggestions as it shall deem proper for the promotion of the objects of the whole order.

SEC. 5. Whenever a member, in good standing in his Society, changes his residence from the jurisdiction of the State Society of which he is a member to that of another, he shall be entitled, if he so elects, to a certificate of honorable dismission from his own State Society, in order that he may be transferred to the State Society to whose jurisdiction he has changed his residence; provided, that his membership shall continue in the former until he shall have been elected a member of the latter. Each State Society shall, however, retain full control of the admission of members by transfer.

SEC. 6. Whenever the word "State" occurs in this Constitution it shall be held to include within its meaning the District of Columbia and the Territories of the United States.

SEC. 7. A Society may be formed in any foreign country by fifteen or more persons who are eligible to membership under this Constitution, which shall bear the same relation to the National organization as the State Society, subject to the provisions of this Constitution.

ARTICLE V.—OFFICERS AND MANAGERS.

SECTION 1. The General Officers of the National Society shall be a President General, five Vice-Presidents General, a Secretary General, Treasurer General, Registrar General, Historian General, and Chaplain General, who shall be elected by ballot by a vote of a majority of the members present at the annual meeting of the Congress of the National Society and shall hold office for one year and until their successors are elected.

SEC. 2. The General Officers, together with the Presidents of the State Societies ex officio, shall constitute the General Board of Managers of the National Society, which Board shall have authority to adopt and promulgate the By-Laws of the National Society, to prescribe the duties of the General Officers, to provide the seal, to designate and make regulations for the issue of the insignia, and to transact the general business of the National Society during the intervals between the sessions of the Congress. Meetings of the General Board may be held, after not less than ten days' notice, at the call of the President General, or, in case of his absence or inability, at the call of the Senior Vice-President General, certified by the Secretary General. Meetings shall be called at the request of seven members. At all such meetings seven shall constitute a quorum.

SEC. 3. An Executive Committee of seven, of whom the President General shall be Chairman, may be elected by the Board of Managers, which committee shall, in the interim between the meetings of the Board, transact such business as may be delegated to it by the Board of Managers.

ARTICLE VI.—DUES.

Each State Society shall pay annually to the Treasurer General, to defray the expenses of the National Society, twenty-five cents for each active member thereof, unless intermitted by the National Congress, provided that the National Board of Management may increase said dues at any time, not to exceed fifty cents in all, by a two-thirds vote, when the necessities of the National Society so demand. All such dues shall be paid on or before the first day of April in each year for the ensuing year, in order to secure representation in the Congress of the National Society.

ARTICLE VII.—MEETINGS AND ELECTIONS.

SECTION 1. The annual Congress of the National Society for the election of the General Officers and for the transaction of business, shall be held on the 30th day of April or on the first day of May, in every year. The time, hour and place of such meeting shall be designated by the Board of Managers.

SEC. 2. Special meetings of the Congress may be called by the President General, and shall be called by him when directed so to do by the Board of Managers or whenever requested in writing so to do by at least five State Societies, on giving thirty days' notice, specifying the time and place of such meeting and the business to be transacted.

SEC. 3. The following shall be members of all such annual or special meetings of the Congress, and shall be entitled to vote therein :

(1) All the officers and the ex-President General of the National Society.

(2) The President and Senior Vice-President of each State Society.

(3) One delegate-at-large from each State Society.

(4) One delegate for every one hundred members of the Society within a State and for a fraction of fifty or over.

ARTICLE VIII.—AMENDMENTS.

This Constitution may be altered or amended at any meeting of the Congress of the National Society, provided that sixty days' notice of the proposed alterations or amendments, which shall first have been recommended by a State Society, shall be sent by the Secretary General to the President of each State Society. A vote of two-thirds of those present shall be necessary to their adoption.

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.—ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

All nominations of officers shall be made from the floor, and the election shall be by ballot. A majority shall elect. The nominations may be acted upon directly, or may be referred to a committee to examine and report.

ARTICLE II.—OFFICERS.

The duties of the General Officers shall be such as usually appertain to their offices, and they shall have such other duties as are hereinafter imposed. They shall report at the annual meeting and at such other times as they may be required to do so by the General Board of Managers.

ARTICLE III.—PRESIDENT GENERAL.

SECTION 1. The President General, in addition to his general duties, shall be ex officio chairman of the General Board of Managers and of the Executive Committee and a member of every other committee.

SEC. 2. At each annual meeting he shall appoint the following Standing Committees :

Committee on Auditing.
" " Correspondence.
" " Credentials.
" " Finance.
" " Organization.
" " Unfinished Business.

The duties of the above committees shall be such as usually pertain to committees of like character, and such as may be defined by the Board of Managers.

ARTICLE IV.—VICE-PRESIDENT GENERAL.

SECTION 1. In the absence of the President General, the Senior Vice-President General present shall preside at the annual meeting.

SEC. 2. In the prolonged absence or inability to act of the President General, the executive authority shall be vested in the Vice-President General first in order of precedence.

ARTICLE V.—SECRETARY GENERAL.

The Secretary General, in addition to his general duties, shall have charge of the seal, give due notice of all meetings of the National Society or General Board of Managers, of which he shall be ex officio a member. He shall give due notice to all general officers and State Societies of all votes, orders and proceedings affecting or appertaining to their duties. He shall distribute all pamphlets, circulars, rosettes and supplies, as directed by the General Board of Managers.

ARTICLE VI.—TREASURER GENERAL.

SECTION 1. The Treasurer General shall collect and receive the funds and securities of the National Society. He shall deposit the same to the credit of the "Sons of the American Revolution," and shall draw them thence for the use of the National Society, as directed by it or by the General Board of Managers, upon the order of the President General, countersigned by the Secretary General. His accounts shall be audited by a committee to be appointed at the annual meeting.

SEC. 2. He shall, if so required by the General Board of Managers or the Executive Committee, give bonds for the safe custody and application of the funds.

ARTICLE VII.—REGISTRAR GENERAL.

The Registrar General shall keep a register of the names and dates of the election, resignation or death of all members of the several State Societies, and shall have the care and custody of all duplicate applications for membership. He shall issue, upon the requisition of the Secretary or Registrar of the several State Societies, certificates of membership and insignia to every member entitled thereto, through such Secretary or Registrar.

ARTICLE VIII.—HISTORIAN GENERAL.

The Historian General shall have the custody of all the historical and biographical collection of which the National Society may become possessed, and shall catalogue and arrange the same, and shall place the same in a fireproof repository for preservation.

ARTICLE IX.—CHAPLAIN GENERAL.

The Chaplain General shall be a regularly ordained minister, and shall open and close all general meetings of the National Society with the services usual and proper on such occasions.

ARTICLE X.—STATE SOCIETIES.

Every State Society shall

(1) Notify the Secretary General of the election and appointment of all officers and delegates.

(2) Pay to the Treasurer General on the first day of March, or within sixty days thereafter, the sum of twenty-five cents for each active member thereof.

(3) Transmit to the Registrar General duplicate applications of all accepted members, and notify him of the resignation or death of all members thereof.

ARTICLE XI.—GENERAL BOARD OF MANAGERS.

SECTION 1. The General Board of Managers shall prepare and carry out plans for promoting the objects and growth of the Society; shall generally superintend its interests, and shall execute such other duties as shall be committed to it at any meeting of the National Society. It shall have charge of the printing of the Diploma and the manufacturing of the Insignia, and shall determine the price at which the same shall be issued.

SEC. 2. It shall have authority to admit or re-organize as a State Society any association of fourteen or more persons duly qualified for membership in the Society.

SEC. 3. It shall have power to fill any vacancy occurring among the General Officers, and an officer so elected shall act until the following annual election and until his successor shall be elected.

SEC. 4. It shall have authority to make, alter and amend the By-Laws as hereinafter provided.

SEC. 5. The President General may call meetings of the General Board of Managers at any time he may deem necessary, and shall call such meeting upon the written request of any five members thereof, provided that not less than five days' notice of the time and place of such meeting shall be given.

ARTICLE XII.—EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

The President General may call a meeting of the Executive Committee at any time, and shall call such meeting on the written request of three members thereof.

ARTICLE XIII.—SEAL.

The seal of the Society shall be two and three-eighths of an inch in diameter, charged with the figure of a minute-man, grasping a musket in his right hand, and surrounded by a constellation of thirteen stars, who shall be depicted in the habit of a husbandman of the period of the American Revolution, and as in the act of deserting the plough for the service of his country; the whole encircled by a band three-eighths of an inch wide, within which shall appear the legend, "NATIONAL SOCIETY OF THE SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION, organized April 30, 1889."

ARTICLE XIV.—CERTIFICATES.

All members of the Society, wherever admitted, shall be entitled to a certificate of membership duly attested by the President General, Secretary General and Registrar General, countersigned by the President, Secretary and Registrar of the State Society to which such member shall have been admitted.

ARTICLE XV.—INSIGNIA.

The insignia of the Society shall comprise (1) a cross surmounted by an eagle in gold, (2) a rosette.

SECTION 1. The cross shall be of silver, with four arms, covered with white enamel and eight gold points, same size as Chevaliers' Cross of the Legion of Honor of France, with a gold medallion in the center, bearing on the obverse a bust of Washington in profile, and on the reverse, the figure of a minute-man, surrounded by a ribbon enamelled blue, with the motto: "Libertas et Patria" on the obverse, and the legend, "SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION," on the reverse, both in letters of gold. The cross shall be surmounted by an eagle in gold, and the whole decoration suspended from a ring of gold by a ribbon of deep blue with white edges, and may be worn by any member of the Society on ceremonial occasions only, and shall be carried on the left breast, or, if an officer, at the collar.

SEC. 2. The rosette shall be seven-sixteenths of an inch in diameter, of usual pattern, displaying the colors of the Society, and may be worn by all members at discretion in the upper left hand buttonhole of the coat.

ARTICLE XVI.—INDEBTEDNESS.

No debts shall be contracted on behalf of the National Society. Every obligation for the payment of money, except checks drawn against deposits, executed in the name or on behalf of the National Society shall be null and void.

ARTICLE XVII.—AMENDMENTS.

These By-Laws may be altered or amended by a vote of three-fourths of the members present at any meeting of the General Board of Managers, notice thereof having been given at a previous meeting.

ROLL OF THE MEMBERS.

105. 9455.

CHARLES LESLIE BABCOCK, Dentist, Milwaukee.

Son of Hannah Julia (Goodrich) Babcock.

Daughter of Jeremiah Goodrich.

Son of DAVID GOODRICH: This last served for eight months as a private in New York troops, partly under Captain Hubbard and Colonel Huntington. When he applied for a pension, October 9, 1832, he was 77 years of age, and a resident at New Berlin, New York.

Authority: United States Pension Office.

22. 3622.

JOSEPH McCLELLAN BELL, Insurance Agent, Milwaukee.

Son of Keziah (Hemphill) Bell.

Daughter of Ann (McClellan) Hemphill.

Daughter of JOSEPH McCLELLAN: This last, appointed July 11, 1776 Captain in the Third Pennsylvania line, served in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York. He was born April 28, 1747, in Chester County, Pennsylvania, and died there October 14, 1834.

26. 3626.

THEODORE KELSO BIRKHAEUSER, Dentist, Milwaukee.

Son of Christianna McLain (Armstrong) Birkhaeuser.

Daughter of Elizabeth (Gray) Armstrong.

Daughter of Elizabeth (Baker) Gray.

Daughter of THOMAS BAKER: This last enlisted from Colerain, Massachusetts. In November, 1774, he enrolled himself in a body of minute men. He was a private in Captain

Hugh McLellan's company of Colonel Samuel Williams' regiment, which marched April 20, 1775, in response to the alarm call of April 19. After ten days' service he was discharged. On the next day, May 1, 1775, he enlisted in the Continental Army, in Captain Robert Oliver's company of Colonel Ephraim Doolittle's regiment, and participated in the battle of Bunker Hill. After the battle his regiment withdrew to Winter Hill, which they fortified and strengthened, and there Baker was stationed until his discharge in February, 1776. In July, 1776, he enlisted and became a Sergeant in Captain Timothy Child's company of Colonel Ruggles Woodbridge's regiment. He was discharged at Fort Ticonderoga in December, 1776. He was born in Exeter, Rhode Island, October 29, 1751, and died in Richland, New York, January 14, 1840.

Authorities: United States Pension Office; Massachusetts Records; Family Records.

Also:

Son of Christianna McLain (Armstrong) Birkhaeuser.

Daughter of Elizabeth (Gray) Armstrong.

Daughter of Isaac Gray.

Son of ISAAC GRAY: This last was Lieutenant on the Lexington alarm roll of Captain Joseph Hooker's company of minute men, in Colonel Ruggles Woodbridge's regiment, which marched on the alarm of April 19, 1775, from Pelham, Massachusetts. He served eleven days. On May 18, 1775, he was made Captain of the Middlesex company of Colonel Jonathan Brewer's regiment, his commission dating June 17, 1775, the day of the battle of Bunker Hill, in which Captain Gray participated. His name was still on the muster roll on August 1, 1775. On his tombstone at East Pelham, now Prescott, it is recorded that he commanded a company at Bunker Hill. He was born in Worcester, Massachusetts, in 1730, and died in Pelham in 1787.

77. 3677.

WILLIAM GEORGE BIRKHAEUSER, Insurance Clerk, Milwaukee.

Full brother of Theodore Kelso Birkhaeuser, 26.

82. 3682.

HENRY ISAAC BLISS, Civil Engineer, La Crosse.

Son of Charles Bliss.

Son of ISAAC BLISS: This last, born in Springfield, Massachusetts, August 10, 1760, served as a private for four months from November, 1776, in the company of Daniel Caldwell, in Massachusetts. He served again for three months in the summer of 1780.

Authority: United States Pension Office.

Also:

Son of Lucia (Coe) Bliss.

Daughter of Elizabeth (Miller) Coe.

Daughter of GILES MILLER: This last commanded a company in the regiment of Colonel Comfort Sage, of Middletown, Connecticut, which marched for the defence of New Haven when attacked by the British General Tryon in July, 1779. He died aged 77 years, March 1, 1804.

Authority: Connecticut Men in the Revolution.

Henry Isaac Bliss was born in the City of Hartford, Connecticut, January 8, 1830. He graduated from Yale in 1853, and in 1855 removed to Wisconsin. As a civil engineer he was employed to survey a route for the Milwaukee and Fond du Lac Railroad and other preliminary and trial lines. In 1858 he fixed his permanent residence in La Crosse, where he resided continuously until his death, July 10, 1896. From 1860 until 1884 he was City Engineer of La Crosse and planned many of its improvements, including its water-works system. He was a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers. His only child is the wife of Ellis Baker Usher, 75.

103. 9453.

ALONZO LORENZO BOYNTON, Milwaukee.

Son of James G. Boynton.

Son of ISAAC BOYNTON: This last was a resident of Hollis, New Hampshire, when he enlisted in the patriot army. He fought at Hubbardtown and Monmouth and was present at Burgoyne's surrender. He enlisted as a private in May, 1777, and served for three years under Colonel Cilley and Captain House. He died in February, 1824.

Authority: United States Pension Office.

108. 9458.

ROBERT CLARK BRADFORD, Book-keeper, Milwaukee.

Son of Joseph Towne Bradford.

Son of the Rev. Ephraim Putnam Bradford.

Son of JOHN BRADFORD: This last was Second Lieutenant in Captain Benjamin Taylor's company at Winter Hill, in the winter of 1775-6. He commanded the Amherst, New Hampshire, company, in the battle of Bennington, and was the second man to scale the Hessian breastwork. After the defeat of Colonel Baum, in the first part of this battle, Captain Bradford discovered the approach of a large re-enforcement of Hessians under Colonel Brayman, and gave to the American General the timely intelligence which led to the arrangements that completed the victory. In 1778 Captain Bradford was Adjutant of Colonel Nichols' Regiment in Rhode Island. He died at his residence in Hancock, New Hampshire, June 27, 1836, aged ninety-three years.

Authorities: Secomb's History of Amherst; Sprague's Annals of the American Pulpit; Cogswell's History of New Boston, N. H.; Buck's History of Milwaukee.

CHARLES CURTIS BROWN, Cashier First National Bank, Kenosha.

Son of Katharine Jane (Lampson) Brown.

Daughter of Huldah (Phelps) Lampson.

Daughter of Benajah Phelps.

Son of ABEL PHELPS: This last, born in Simsbury, Connecticut, July 5, 1738, was a private in Captain Thomas Bull's company, of Colonel Ira Allen's regiment of Vermont militia, and served "on alarm to the northward," nine days, beginning October 21, 1781.

Authority: Vermont Records.

10. 3610.

EDWARD BURBECK, Retired Banker, Racine.

Son of Edward Burbeck.

Son of William Burbeck.

Son of EDWARD BURBECK: This last was suspected of being a member of the Boston tea party. When Boston was in the hands of the British, Edward managed to send his family from the city and then escaped himself, disguised as a fisherman. He was reunited to his family at Newburyport. He is said to have been first gunner at the North Battery at Fort William, afterward Fort Warren. On May 19, 1775, he was commissioned as Captain, with the rank of Major, in a train of artillery. He was killed by lightning at Newburyport, June 23, 1782. His commission is now owned by John G. Burbeck, of Peabody, Massachusetts.

Authority: His commission and Family Records.

67. 3667.

NORMAN LESLIE BURDICK, Printer, Milwaukee.

Son of Lydia Lovina (Davison) Burdick.

Daughter of Nathan Davison.

Son of ASA DAVISON: This last served in the Lexington alarm in April, 1775, marching from Connecticut. He enlisted May 6, 1775, in Captain Thomas Knowlton's company, Third Regiment of Connecticut Volunteers, under General Putnam, and was discharged December 10, 1775. He again enlisted, probably from New York, and served to the battle of Monmouth, June 27, 28, 1778.

Authority: Connecticut Records.

5. 3605.

JOSEPH HATCH BURNELL, Accountant, Milwaukee.

Son of Levi Burnell.

Son of JOSEPH BURNELL: This last volunteered in December, 1775, for one year, in the company of Captain William King, of Colonel Jonathan Ward's regiment, and joined his company at Dorchester for the siege of Boston. After this city was evacuated, March 17, 1776, he was ordered to New York City. He was employed as a blacksmith from July, 1776, until New York was evacuated, September 15, 1776. He was then sent to a hospital on account of a fever. He served for more than eight months, from June, 1777, as a blacksmith at Springfield, Massachusetts, in the company of Captain Richard Sexton, in the regiment of Colonel Mason. From March 1, 1778, for six months, he served as a blacksmith under Captain Ezra Eaton at Albany, New York. The company went from Albany by water to West Point to join the command of Colonel James Macomber.

GEORGE WASHINGTON CHITTENDEN, Physician, Janesville.

Son of JARED CHITTENDEN: This last enlisted for the war from Guilford, Connecticut, in 1775, in a battalion of artillery raised by that state, which also raised that year a squadron of horse. The State of New York raised at the same time a battalion of artillery and a squadron of horse. Early in the contest the two battalions were consolidated and formed Lamb's regiment of artillery, which was considered as belonging to the New York state line. For his efficiency and good qualifications Chittenden early secured a Sergeant's warrant. He was with General Montgomery at the siege of St. John's, and at the storming of Quebec, December 31, 1775. He was in Colonel Ward's regiment with General Wooster at Mt. Independence. He wintered at Valley Forge in 1777-8, was at the battle of Monmouth June 28, 1778, and was at the siege of Yorktown and at the surrender of Cornwallis, October 17, 1781. He was at West Point in the spring of 1783 and was one of the committee who addressed a memorial April 22, 1783, to General Washington to use his influence with Congress in behalf of the soldiers, most of whom were destitute; and also to the Governor of Connecticut, May 2, 1783, for his intercession with the legislature for such aid. Dr. Chittenden holds the patent for his father's bounty land, issued July 26, 1791, signed by George Clinton, Governor of New York, and by Lewis A. Scott, Secretary. Jared Chittenden was born in Guilford, May 3, 1756, and died in Westmoreland, Oneida County, New York, April 2, 1828. His son, George Washington Chittenden, born in Westmoreland, February 3, 1820, is still (December, 1896) living.

The epitaph upon his tombstone in St. John's churchyard, Providence, thus reads: "Sacred to the memory of the Hon. Metcalf Bowler, Esq., who resigned his soul to God on 19th Sept., 1789, in the 63rd year of his age. Having been repeatedly elected to several of the most important offices in this state, shows the confidence of the public in his ability and patriotism, and is the best eulogium of his character. He served as Judge of the Superior Courts, was 19 [should read 9] years Speaker of the lower House of Assembly, and was a member of the First Congress in 1765, the duties of which station he discharged with honor and ability."

Francis B. Keene is the son of the Rev. David Keene, D. D., an early settler, and an influential and honored citizen, of Milwaukee.

ALLEN PERRY LOVEJOY, Lumberman, Janesville.

Son of Nathan Lovejoy.

Son of JOHN LOVEJOY.

Son of HEZEKIAH LOVEJOY: This last was Lieutenant in the company of Colonel Moses Nichols, in the brigade of General William Whipple. This brigade was New Hampshire militia men sent to Rhode Island in the summer of 1778 to assist in an attack upon the British forces stationed there. Lieutenant Lovejoy was a resident of Amherst, New Hampshire. In September, 1779, Captain Hezekiah Lovejoy enlisted for six months in the garrison at Portsmouth. He was several times appointed on a committee to procure soldiers and supplies for the Continental Army, as is shown by an order in the office of the secretary of state of New Hampshire, of which the following is a copy:

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE, April 2, 1779.

To Nicholas Gilman, Esq., R. G.:

Pursuant to a vote of Council and Assembly, pay Josiah Crosby and Hezekiah Lovejoy twenty-five pounds twelve shillings for camp utensils for Gen. Stark's brigade.

JOHN WILLIAM PETERSON LOMBARD, Banker, Milwaukee.

Son of Lewis Lombard.

Son of Hannah (Snow) Lombard.

Daughter of DAVID SNOW: This last, who was born in Truro, Massachusetts, in 1732, was a private in Captain Matthias Tobey's company of Colonel Aaron Willard's regiment, in January, 1777. His residence was Truro, and his services were to and at Ticonderoga. On September 16, 1777, he was commissioned as First Lieutenant of the Barnstable County regiment of Massachusetts militia. Later, while at home at Truro, accompanied by his son David, a lad of 15 years, he was fishing in his boat off Truro coast. Both he and his son were taken prisoners of war by an English privateer known as the Shaving Mill. The British, being especially desirous of destroying the Cape Cod fisheries, treated all engaged in this occupation as belligerents. David Snow, with his son, was carried to Halifax, and thence to Old Mill prison, Plymouth, England. David Snow planned an escape from the prison and, proposing a great frolic and dance among the prisoners to drown the noise, succeeded during the dance in filing off the prison bars and escaped with his son and thirty-four other prisoners. They marched to Plymouth Harbor and capturing a scow put to sea. They finally captured a small vessel in which they sailed to France, where they sold their vessel. From there they returned to America, where they arrived just after the declaration of peace.

FRANCIS HENRY LYMAN, Merchant, Kenosha.

Son of Frederick William Lyman.

Son of Thomas Lyman.

Son of TIMOTHY LYMAN: This last was a private in Captain Robert Webster's company of General Seth Pomeroy's regiment, which, on the Lexington alarm of April 19, 1775, marched two days later from Chesterfield, Massachusetts. The length of this service was fourteen days. General Pomeroy was an uncle of Timothy Lyman. Timothy Lyman enlisted August 17, 1777, as a sergeant in Captain Christopher Bannister's company of Colonel John Dickinson's regiment, and marched for the reinforcement of the army at Bennington. He again enlisted, September 20, 1777, as a sergeant, in Captain Bannister's company in Colonel Ezra May's regiment, and was discharged October 14, 1777. During this enlistment he served at Stillwater and Saratoga. He was commissioned, July 6, 1778, as a Lieutenant in Colonel Israel Chapin's Second Hampshire County regiment of Massachusetts militia. He again enlisted, October 14, 1779, and was a Lieutenant in Captain Joseph Clap's company of Colonel Israel Chapin's regiment, and was discharged November 21, 1779. He was born in Northampton, Massachusetts, July 25, 1745, and died in Goshen, same state, February 23, 1818.

NATHANIEL EWING OLIPHANT, Patent Solicitor, Milwaukee.

Son of Ethelbert Patterson Oliphant.

Son of JOHN OLIPHANT.

Son of ANDREW OLIPHANT: This last, as appears from the official records of Pennsylvania, was Sergeant in January, 1776, of Captain John Lacey's company of the Fourth battalion, Pennsylvania, commanded by Colonel Anthony Wayne. The same records say of this soldier: "He seems to have been in service in January, 1781, but neither his rank, regiment nor company is given." A manuscript of above-named Ethelbert P. Oliphant relates that Andrew Oliphant was at the battle of the Brandywine, and that the above-named John Oliphant served a term of three months in the War of the Revolution before he was 18 years of age. General S. D. Oliphant, now of Trenton, New Jersey, a grandson of said John Oliphant, states that when a youth he was told by men of advanced years who knew said John Oliphant from early manhood that the latter, against the wishes of his parents (on account of his youth), left home, stole a Quaker neighbor's rifle, powder-horn and shot-pouch—with the consent and co-operation of said Quaker—and enlisted in Hand's Rifles of New Jersey. It is presumed that such enlistment was under an assumed name.

EDWARD JOY PAUL, Attorney; Milwaukee.

Son of George Howard Paul.

Son of Amos Paul.

Son of Elethear (Jewett) Paul.

Daughter of DANIEL JEWETT: This last, while residing in Putney, Vermont, was chosen by its inhabitants to be one of a committee for concerting measures for disseminating among the people a spirit of opposition to English taxation bills. He accepted this duty. Having heard the news of Lexington, he shouldered a gun and marched, with others, for that place. At the battle of Bennington he was a Lieutenant of Continental troops, and having pursued the enemy too far was taken prisoner. After the war he was repeatedly chosen to office in the town of Putney, and for sixteen or seventeen years was representative in the legislature of Vermont. In his later years he was styled Captain. He was born in Ipswich, Massachusetts, February 24, 1744, and died in Putney, March 30, 1829.

JONATHAN FRANKLIN PEIRCE, Real Estate, Milwaukee.

Son of Angelina (Moulton) Peirce.

Daughter of Nathaniel Thayer Moulton.

Son of JONATHAN MOULTON: This last, a resident of Hampton, New Hampshire, took command of the Third regiment of that colony, August 24, 1775. This regiment he equipped at his own expense. He was at Saratoga in October, 1777. The records at Exeter, New Hampshire, and family tradition agree that the surrender at Saratoga was principally due to Moulton's sagacity and efficient aid on the field—General Gates being detained at the rear. The regiment which Colonel

Moulton commanded was during his command employed largely by detachments, for the people of New Hampshire had their own sea coast to defend as well as to serve elsewhere. An invasion by sea was sometimes threatened and always feared, and Colonel Moulton was called to this service in the Revolution. For his services in the war and for his generosity in equipping the Third regiment he received the title of General, and was given the township of Moultonboro', New Hampshire. He was born July 21, 1726, in Hampton, and died there September 18, 1787.

Son of Nathan Perry.

Son of ABIJAH PERRY: This last was in the Ticonderoga campaign of 1776, and the Canada campaign of 1776, where he served in Captain William Barron's Company of Colonel Isaac Wyman's New Hampshire regiment. His name appears on the pay-roll of this regiment for personal services for five months at the Tie in 1776.

Authorities: History of Wilton, N. H.; Genealogies of old families of Concord, Mass.; Town records of Elizabethtown, New York, and Baraboo, Wis.

Also:

Son of Oliver Hazard Perry.

Son of Rebecca (Brown) Perry.

Daughter of JOSIAH BROWN: This last was on the Committee of Correspondence and Inspection in the town of New Ipswich, New Hampshire, in 1775. In the same year he was First Lieutenant of Colonel Ezra Towne's Company in Colonel James Reed's Third New Hampshire regiment, from May 23, 1775, until December, 1775. In April, 1780, he raised a company of twenty-four men and joined General St. Clair at Ticonderoga, where they remained six weeks and were then discharged. As soon as they reached home the news came of the capture of Crown Point by Burgoyne and a request for men. Captain Brown responded promptly with a company of forty-eight men. Captain Brown previously fought at Bunker Hill, where he claimed he fired the last shot before the retreat. Thereafter he served eight months, often acting as commander in the absence of Captain Towne. Josiah Brown was born at Concord, Massachusetts, January 30, 1742, and died at New Ipswich, New Hampshire, March 18, 1831.

WILLIAM HENRY PURNELL, Bank Clerk, Kenosha.

Son of Margaret Neill (Martin) Purnell.

Daughter of Rebecca Grace (Duffield) Martin.

Daughter of BENJAMIN DUFFIELD, M. D.

Son of EDWARD DUFFIELD: This last, who was born in 1720, was a commissioner to issue colonial paper currency, a specimen of which, with his autograph, is preserved in Independence Hall, Philadelphia. He was one of the executors of the will of Benjamin Franklin, whose friend he was through similarity of their tastes for agricultural, mechanical and scientific pursuits. He was commissioner to build a prison for the city of Philadelphia, but upon the occupation of that city by the British he was himself incarcerated therein. It is reported that the first consultation held by Jefferson and his coadjutors concerning independence was held at the home of Edward Duffield, at the northwest corner of Fifth and Market streets, Philadelphia.

The above-named Benjamin Duffield, M. D., acted in the capacity of surgeon at the Pest House, Fisher's Island, Philadelphia, 1774 to 1776, and at the Military Hospital at Reading, Pennsylvania, throughout the war.

BRADLEY GEORGE SCHLEY, Lawyer, Milwaukee.
Son of Harriet (Johnson) Schley.
Daughter of Charles Worthington Johnson, M. D.

Son of BAKER JOHNSON: This last served in the Maryland Convention, which, after the expulsion of the proprietary government, in 1774, governed Maryland until the State government was organized, in March, 1777. Upon the organization of the Maryland troops, in 1776, Baker Johnson was appointed Colonel of the Fourth regiment and commanded at Brandywine and Germantown. He was born September 30, 1747, in Frederick, Maryland, and died there June 18, 1811.

Authority: Papers belonging to General Bradley Johnson, of Baltimore, uncle of Mr. Schley.

Bradley G. Schley was born October 3, 1857, received his education at the University of Wisconsin, and when very young was admitted to the bar. After being a member of a law firm for some years he became assistant United States district attorney. For some years after 1882 he became assistant to the general solicitor of the Milwaukee, Lake Shore & Western Railroad. In January, 1894, he began practice for himself, making a specialty of railroad litigation, and also of probate business. A Democrat in politics, he organized, in 1892, a number of Democratic clubs in the state, and assisted in the organization of the Juneau Club of Milwaukee, and was the vice-president for Wisconsin of the American Bar Association. He was a member of the Milwaukee Club, the Deutscher Club and the New York Reform Club. He died in Milwaukee, unmarried, June 18, 1895. He was a gentleman of varied excellencies and of estimable character, and in his domestic and social life and in all his relations was "without fear and without reproach."

WILLIAM HUMPHREY SCOTT, Farmer, Neenah.

Son of JAMES SCOTT.

Son of EBENEZER SCOTT: This last enlisted at or soon after the commencement of the war in the infantry and was at Bunker Hill. In that battle a neighbor, who was fighting by his side, was killed by a British cannon-ball, which imbedded itself in a bank behind. After the battle Ebenezer Scott dug the ball, a twelve-pounder, from the bank and carried it in his knapsack to Winchester, New Hampshire. The ball is now in the possession of George O. Scott, of Denver, Colorado. Ebenezer served till the battle of White Plains, in which he was killed.

James Scott, above-mentioned, when his father, Ebenezer Scott, died, was apprenticed in Northfield, Massachusetts, to a tory blacksmith named Waters. James requested permission to enlist in his father's stead and was refused. He worked until within three months of the expiration of his apprenticeship, and then agreeing to serve the remainder of his term upon returning from war was given a reluctant permission to enter the army. He served under Captain Nettleton, or Nessleton, until the close of the war. He was at West Point and saw the boat go down the Hudson which bore the traitor Arnold. When the war closed James Scott redeemed his promise to his former master Waters. James Scott was born in Winchester, New Hampshire, November 16, 1762, and died there March 26, 1847.

William Humphrey Scott was born in Winchester, May 20, 1816. When a lad of 18 he went to Boston to work for a cousin in the meat business and later followed his relatives to Western New York. In April, 1841, he married Mary Ann Enos. In May, 1846, he removed to Wisconsin and bought from the government the land in Vinland, Winnebago County, which continued his homestead until his death. This land he converted from a forest into a farm, and into a home for himself and family. Here he died December 26, 1892. The information above given as to his father and grandfather was obtained by William Humphrey Scott from his father's lips.

WILLIAM CHESTER SWAIN, Printer, Milwaukee.

Son of Chipman Swain.

Son of Meliscent (Barrett) Swain.

Daughter of JAMES BARRETT.

Son of COLONEL JAMES BARRETT: This last, at Concord, Massachusetts, April 19, 1775, being then 64 years of age, gave the first order to an American force to march against and engage the British. His wife, Rebecca Hubbard Barrett, concealed ammunition which had been collected for the use of the colonies in the attic of their house where it was not discovered. A view of their home, a fac simile of Colonel Barrett's autograph, and an account of his services at Concord may be seen in Lossing's Pictorial Field-book of the Revolution.

The above named James Barrett, son of Colonel James Barrett, assisted his father in the preparations to resist the British and participated in Concord fight. Through nearly all the war he was a member of the Revolutionary Committees of Correspondence. His wife, Meliscent, born Estabrook, and his daughter Meliscent assisted in concealing ammunition. Colonel Barrett was born July 31, 1710, in Concord, and died there April 11, 1779. His son James was born January 4, 1733, in Concord, and died there October 30, 1799.

EDWARD CAPRON THIERS, Lawyer, Kenosha.

Son of Louisa Kerwin (Capron) Thiers.

Daughter of SETH CAPRON: This last, when 19 years of age, March 21, 1781, enlisted for three years from Norton, Massachusetts, as a private in Colonel William Shepard's regiment. During May, June, July and August, 1781, his name appears as a private in Captain Simon Larned's company of this regiment. On September 22, 1781, he became a Corporal and so appears in November and December and in January, 1782. He was at the siege of Newport, Rhode Island, where he was attached to General La Fayette's corps of light infantry. He fought at White Plains. He was afterwards ordered to the headquarters of the army at West Point, where he was attached to the non-commissioned staff of General Washington, under whom he served during the remainder of the war. He commanded the barge that conveyed General Washington to Elizabethtown Point after he bade farewell to his army at New York, and was the last man to receive the General's benediction when he landed.

When Seth Capron first entered the army he was too young to be subject to draft and too short to pass inspection, but managed to overcome the latter difficulty and pass muster, by standing on his toes. He then made a show of five feet five inches.

HENRY CORNELIUS VAN VECHTEN, Machinist, Racine.

Son of Cornelius Van Vechten.

Son of Walter Van Vechten.

Son of DERRICK VAN VECHTEN: This last, as appears by the roster of the regiment, dated October 20, 1775, was first Major in the Fourteenth regiment of New York state militia, John Knickerbocker, Colonel, which was composed of companies organized in the districts of Hoosick and Schaghticoke. This regiment was attached to the Army of the North under Generals Schuyler and Gates. In 1777, previous to the battle of Bemis Heights, while on a scout across the Hudson to obtain information of the movements of the enemy, his band was fired upon by British and Indians. After having been several times slightly wounded, Major Van Vechten was mortally wounded by a ball which passed through his tobacco-box into his body. His companions succeeded in escaping and returned with reinforcements to recover his body. In the meantime he had been scalped by the Indians. His body was finally removed to Albany for burial. The tobacco-box is now possessed by Henry Cornelius Van Vechten.

GURDON HORATIO WINSOR, Lawyer, West Superior.

Son of Mary Helen (Munsel) Winsor.
Daughter of Zalma (Chase) Munsel.
Daughter of CALEB CHASE : This last signed an order to pay to Lieutenant Robert Taft a bounty coat, or its equivalent in money, due to said Caleb Chase for eight months' service in 1775 in Captain David Batchelor's company in Colonel Joseph Read's regiment. The order was dated at Roxbury, October 24, 1775. Said Caleb Chase served from August 3, 1776, to September 30, 1776, in Captain Nathan Hamilton's company of Colonel Samuel Brewer's regiment. Caleb Chase, while at Ticonderoga Mills, on November 3, 1776, receipted for the wages of the preceding October, and at Brookfield, Massachusetts, February 6, 1777, he receipted for his mileage from Fort Edwards to Petersham, his home. He was then still in Captain Hamilton's company.

CHARLES HERBERT WOOSTER, Insurance Clerk, Milwaukee.

Son of Dorastus Wooster.

Son of MOSES WOOSTER: This last served as a private in Captain Joel Dickinson's company in Colonel Samuel Elmore's battalion of Connecticut troops, serving from April 15, 1776, to January, 1777. Later he enlisted as private in the "Colonel company" of the Seventh Connecticut regiment, commanded by Colonel Heman Swift. He enlisted March 29, 1777, and served three years, and was discharged November 19, 1780. He was taken prisoner January 16, 1780, at Staten Island and confined in the "sugar house," where he was fed on damaged, and it is said poisoned, provisions. He was at one time reported dead, but later, being exchanged, he unexpectedly returned home a "spectacle of grief and horror to his friends." He enlisted January 1, 1781, to serve three years in the company of Captain Caleb Baldwin in Colonel Heman Swift's regiment of Connecticut troops. He served until the formal disbanding of the army, having participated in the capture of Cornwallis. He was born in Waterbury, Connecticut, December 4, 1758, and died in Cornwall, Vermont, August 26, 1829.

POSTSCRIPT.

Walter Seymour Chandler, 79, died at his home at the Plankinton House, Milwaukee, December 27, 1896. He was born in Batavia, New York, January 18, 1836, and removed to Milwaukee, with his parents, August 29, 1848. His father, Daniel Hicks Chandler, was reporter of the decisions of the Supreme Court of Wisconsin during 1849, 1850, 1851 and 1852. The residence of Walter S. Chandler in Wisconsin had been continuous since his removal here, but in later years he had lived in comparative retirement. He is the father of Burr Kneeland Chandler, 80. He married Sarah Olivia Kneeland, niece of James Kneeland, 87, first cousin of Norman Little Kneeland, 88, aunt of Wyman Kneeland Flint, 42, and sister-in-law of John Gardiner Flint, 43.

NOTE.

The statistics printed at page 9 should be amended as follows: The name of Walter Seymour Chandler, 79, should be added to the roll of deceased members, making the total of these seven. The persons who applied and received numbers, but whose applications were rejected from inadequacy of proof, or are still pending, must be increased to five by adding number 101. The number of persons accepted as members since the annual meeting in 1896 must therefore be reduced to 23; the total of accepted members will thus become 104, and the net living membership January 15, 1897, stands at 94.
